Accommodation and Rates

Sanctuary has two styles of accommodation, Rainforest Huts and deluxe Canopy Cabins are nestled in the rainforest canopy. In keeping with the Sanctuary low impact philosophy, buildings are designed and constructed to ensure that the vegetation and bird life is disturbed as little as possible.

Whilst Sanctuary can accommodate a maximum of 46 guests, there is no minimum number of participants required to hold a Yoga Retreat. There are 16 beautifully simple Rainforest huts some with shared bathrooms and others with alfresco ensuite, that accommodate up to 32 participants, while the 7 deluxe Canopy Cabins each with private en-suite can accommodate up to another 14. All accommodation sleeps two per room in either two single beds or one double bed or can be taken as sole occupancy.

DELUXE CANOPY CABINS

For those interested more in creature comforts, the deluxe canopy cabins are for you. Larger than the rainforest huts, with solid wooden walls, glass louvres and sliding doors, these cabins are stylishly appointed with polished wooden floors, handmade natural timber furniture and spectacular bathrooms looking out high in the trees. With twin or queen bed options, the canopy cabins offer superior accommodation in an entirely natural environment.

RAINFOREST HUTS

Rainforest Huts of minimalist design maximises the sights, sounds and smells of the rainforest whilst giving some personal space to those creatures you may prefer not to sleep with. Adjoining huts are connected by boardwalks to protect the forest floor. The wooden frame walls are screened giving 360 degree views of the forest. Inside a bed, small table, light, fan and spring water drinking tap offers comfortable essentials. Pathways connect to the main building, the Longhouse where shared bathrooms, shower, toilet and wash basin facilities can be found. Our second style of Rainforest Huts have an alfresco ensuite attached, secluded by the rainforest.
